

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The US media (especially the news) is very narrow and I find that despite the numerous channels on cable most of the time there is nothing worth watching. I greatly object to any changes that would make the consolidation of media worse than it already is.